DOMESTIC MATTERS.

We ask an apology of the reader for the nu merous errors which appear in the editorial corbefore we reached home. They are too numerous to particularise, we compliment the reader's tions, unaided, as he goes along.

RETURNED. - Well, reader, after a ten with improved energies for the discharge of hour for a survey, und note of total matters our absence. After such a season of free-It will require a little time te get the barness on again, and become accustomed to its confinement, and to its galling tendencies. Car Pao Tex has done well for one who takes the world single-handed, and seeks his happiness about the hedges and by-ways of legitimate existence. He has done well, we say, for we are not disposed to withhold commendation, but it is in him to have done much better, had it not been for his evident modesty and want of confidence, considerations that have stood in the way of his highest good, all-along. We trust that he may be overtaken by some favorable train of circumstances which shall result in an essential change of his condition, and bring home the conviction to his mind, that he is a component, and essential part of society, and that its immunities are but a common inheritance.

We learn that our animadversions upon some things at the "centre," made just before we took took the "next train," having reference to election matters, have stirred up no little commotion, and that the last Sentinel but one, teems with rebutters and sur-rebutters, biography, wit, sarcasm, ridicule, and all the ordinary and extraordinary munitions of belles lettres blunderbussing. This number of the Sentinel our Pro Tex has taken to his domestic sanctum in all parts of the empire, and stipulates for a more deliberate admiration, so that we shall defer a calm consideration of its contents for a more auspicious moment. This is perhaps well, for the sweet juices of the soul, as well as those of the stomach, therefore more ready to receive the Gospel became somewhat mixed, in a passage this the commercial cities, where alone it was Erie, a condition rather adverse for responding to the gentle amenities of life. These deserve next week.

To the Merchants and others of Ashtabula: GENTS:-The liberality with which you universally responded to my appeal, for assistance in behalf of my fellow townsman, D. K. Pat-MER, who had lost his all by Fire, will be remembered with gratitude by the afflicted familyand never forgotten by a sympathizing commity. May the prosperity of your beautiful village keep pace with your liberality. Denmark, Oct. 25, 1853.

Notice.-The Furmer's Club will meet at the office of H. Fassett, Saturday, Nov. 6, at 2 o'clock P. M. The meeting is an important one. All those who are interested, are requested to attend. Thos. A. Smith, Sec'y. P. S. Those claiming Premiums are requested to call before the above meeting. October, 28, 1858.

THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE.-This highly spoken of mngazine, has again made its appearance. It is an old favorite of ours, and is one of the best, of the many magazines, that make their appearance on our table. It is published by John H. Gray, 16 a 18 Jacob street, New York-$3 per annum.

FRANK LESLIE FOR NOVEMBER .- The November number of this standard Magazine has been received. It contains its usual variety of reading matter, and fine engravings. We commend it to all our readers, as one of best family magazines, that is published.

28 We are requested to state by Mr. Thos. Horkins, that he intends to teach instrumental music, of which particulars will be given hereafter. He can be seen at the Parish Schoolhouse for consultation, in regard to this matter.

Our old friend STEELE has just received New Goods. All those that want anything in his line, will do well to give him a call.

We call the attention of the reader to the advertisement of BENEDICT & Sons, of Cleveland. They have one of the finest stocks of Hats, Caps, Furs, &c., ever brought before the public. Our social and business acquaintance with the members of the firm, gives us a high opinion of their business integrity, and fairness of prices.

PROTECTION FIRE COMPANY, No. 1 .- You are hereby notified to attend a Meeting of said Company on Wednesday, Nov. 3d, 1858, at 7 o'clock, P. M. at the Engine House. By order of the foreman. A. W. STERLE, Sec'y.

THE OPENING OF CHINA .- The most interesting missionary news of the month is the opening of China as a field for Christian missions. The recent treaty provides for the toleration of the Christian religion that missionaries shall be unmolested i their work. Missionaries have been san guine in the belief that if they could pentrate inland, they would find the peopl more upright and religiously inclined, an morning over the troubled waters of Lake lawful for foreigners to reside, the love of money and trade has bluuted the conscience so that missionaries have sometimes doubt ed if the Chinese as a nation had any con matters will receive all the attention they coption of a holy God, or any idea of ve racity. We shall soon know if the results of labor in the interior are more promising

HARD TIMES .- A Keokuk paper gives a distressing account of things in Iowa, comparing its condition to that of "the doomed city of Jerusalem." They have creditors without and creditors within, every third man is a lawyer, every other man virtually a paoper, and all standing in listless and upprofitable idleness, except the police and constables.

HONORABLE SERVICE -A year or two since, a gentleman celebrated the twentyfirst anniversary of his connection with the Courier and Enquirer by a festival, to which he invited all who had in any capacity been his fellow laborers in the establishment during that long period. Eleven persons met on that occasion, and their aggregate term of service on the paper amounted to two hundred and seconty three years. This certainly is testimony of the highest practical value to General Webb's character as an Annexation.-The administration has received an official document from those in power in two of the Society Islands, proposing a surrender of them to the United States. It is said in diplomatic circles that this paper was transmitted to our Government through Count Sartiges, the French Minister, but no reason is stated for resorting to this channel of communication. The subject will receive due consideration, especially in its geographical aspect.

MAIL ROBBERY .- On the 20th ult., J. S. Tilden of Parkman, mailed a registered letter, containing $500 in bank bills, and a draft of $500, to G. Tayler, Cashier of the W. R Bank. The letter did not reach its destination, and circumstances causing suspicion to rest upon Henry Karther, the mail carrier, he was arrested on the 5th, brought before Justice Abell, and held to bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance on the next day. Then, after several witnesses had been heard, Smith and Fuller Atty's, for the State, requested an adjournment for the purpose of obtaining further t stimony.
